

LBC EXPRESS HOLDINGS, INC. WHISTLE-BLOWING POLICY

INTRODUCTION

LBC Express Holdings, Inc. (the "Corporation") is committed to achieving and maintaining the highest standards of openness, probity and accountability. Employees at all levels are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, impartiality and honesty. It is every employee's responsibility and in all interest of the Corporation to ensure that any illegal or unethical behavior that compromise the interest of the shareholders, investors, customers and the wider public does not occur. It is also critical to maintain a good corporate image and raise the standard of corporate governance of the Corporation. Any such reports may be made anonymously. Confidentiality will be maintained to the extent permitted by law. To this end, the Corporation has devised a whistleblowing policy (the "Policy").

PURPOSE

The purpose of formulating the Policy is to allow employees to freely communicate their concerns about illegal or unethical practices, without fear of retaliation and to have direct access to a unit created to handle whistleblowing concerns.

The term "whistleblowing" refers to a situation where an employee decides to report serious concerns about any suspected misconduct, malpractice or irregularity which he has become aware of or genuinely suspects that the Corporation has been or may become involved in. This Policy is designed to encourage employees to raise serious concerns internally, in a responsible and effective manner, rather than overlooking a problem or blowing the whistle outside. The content of this Policy is applicable to all employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries in Philippines or outside Philippines.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF THE POLICY

This Policy is intended to assist individual employees (permanent or temporary employees) to disclose information relevant to suspected misconduct, malpractice or irregularity through a confidential reporting channel. It is not designed to further any personal disputes, question financial or business decisions taken by the Corporation nor should it be used to reconsider any staff matters which have been addressed under the grievance procedure already in place. Whistleblowing matters may include but are not confined to:

1. Malpractice, impropriety or fraud relating to internal controls, accounting, auditing and financial matters
2. Violation of the rules and regulations of the Corporation or the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics of the Corporation
3. Improper conduct or unethical behavior likely to prejudice the standing of the Corporation
4. Breach of legal or regulatory requirements
5. Criminal offences, breach of civil law and miscarriage of justice
6. Endangerment of the health and safety of an individual
7. Damage caused to the environment
8. Deliberate concealment of any of the above

PROTECTION AND CONFIDENTIALITY

It is the Corporation's policy to make every effort treating all disclosures in a confidential and sensitive manner after employee reports concern about any of the above matters. The identity of the individual employee making genuine and appropriate allegation under this Policy are assured of fair treatment. In addition, employees are also assured of protection against unfair dismissal, victimization or unwarranted disciplinary action, even if the concerns raised turned out to be unsubstantiated.

Corporation reserves the right to take appropriate actions against anyone who initiates or threatens to initiate retaliation against those who have raised concerns under this Policy. In particular, employees who initiate or threaten retaliation will be subject to disciplinary actions, which may include summary dismissal.

Management will support all employees and encourage them to raise concerns without fear of reprisals.

PROCEDURE

1. Reporting Channel for the Corporation

Any employee who has a legitimate malpractice concern can raise the matter directly with the officer of the Corporate Governance Committee. The officer will review the complaint and decide how the investigation should proceed. Depending on the circumstances, the Corporate Governance Committee may consider nominating an appropriate investigating officer or set up a special committee to investigate the matter independently.

2. Reporting Format and Supporting Documentation

Disclosures can be made in writing or electronically by accessing the standard form (Whistleblower Report Form) attached to this Policy using the link/e-mail disseminated by the Corporation to its employees. While the Corporation does not expect the employee to have absolute proof or evidence of the misconducts, malpractices or irregularities reported, the report should show reasons for the concerns and full disclosure of any relevant details and supporting documentation.

The disclosure should be sent: (a) in case made in writing, to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee at LBC Hangar, General Aviation Center, Domestic Airport Road, Pasay City, Philippines in a sealed envelope clearly marked “Strictly Private and Confidential – to be opened by Addressee Only” to ensure confidentiality; or (b) in case submitted electronically, to the link/e-mail disseminated by the Corporation and accessible to the employees. Employees should ensure all the attachments to the e-mails should have passwords in order to ensure confidentiality. Employees are required to put their name to any disclosures they make. Anonymous complaints are usually not considered.

The Company will hold it a serious disciplinary offence for any person who seek to prevent a communication of malpractice concerned reaching to the designated person, or to impede any investigation which he or anyone on his behalf may make.

3. Investigation Procedure

The format and length of an investigation will vary depending upon the nature and particular circumstances of each complaint made. The matters raised may:

- i. be investigated internally;
- ii. be referred to the External Auditor; and/or
- iii. form the subject of an independent inquiry

Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee or the person designated to investigate the complaint will write to the complainant whenever reasonably practicable of the concern being received:

- i. acknowledging that the concern has been received;
- ii. advising whether or not the matter is to be investigated further and if so what the nature of the investigation will be;
- iii. giving an estimate of how long the investigation will take to provide a final response telling the complainant whether any initial inquiries have been made, and whether further investigation will take place, and if not, why not.

FALSE REPORTS

If an employee makes a false report maliciously, with an ulterior motive, or for personal gain, the Corporation reserves the right to take appropriate actions against the employee to recover any loss or damage as a result of the false report. In particular, the employee may face disciplinary action, including dismissal, where appropriate.

ANONYMOUS REPORTS

As the Corporation takes reporting of misconducts, malpractices, and irregularities seriously and wants to conduct warranted investigations of both potential and actual violations, it is preferred that these reports are not made anonymously. However, it is recognized that for any number of reasons, employees may not feel comfortable reporting potential violations directly to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee. In these cases, anonymous reports may be submitted to the HR Department.

RECORD RETENTION

Records shall be kept for all reported misconducts, malpractices, and irregularities by the relevant parties in the Corporation. In the event a reported irregularity leads to an investigation, the party responsible for leading/conducting the investigation shall ensure that all relevant information relating to the case is retained, including details of corrective action taken for a period not exceeding six years (or whatever other period may be specified by any relevant legislation).

APPROVAL, IMPLEMENTATION AND REVIEW OF POLICY

This policy has been approved and adopted by the Board of the Corporation. The Corporate Governance Committee has the overall responsibility for implementation, monitoring and periodic review of this Policy. In addition, the Audit Committee has delegated the day-to-day responsibility for administration of the Policy to the Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee.
